Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this passage?
2. Would you rather have God's game plan for you all laid out from the outset, or revealed one step at a time? Why?
3. It's been said that "the human heart resists nothing more than change." What truths about attitude (Lesson 2) truths that could require some changes in your life — cause some degree of hesitation and resistance inside you?
4. Who in your group has never complained about the conditions of their life? When we complain about these things, what does it reveal about our level of trust in God?
5. Is the "seeking" which Jesus mentions in Matt. 6:33-34 meant to be a life-long seeking? If so, how much "finding" should we expect to experience in this life on earth? Will we ever be able to get by with less and less seeking?
6. What is God saying to you through these passages about handling your particular worry or disappointment?
