

GOD MOVES IN MYSTERIOUS WAYS?

Series: Myth Busters

– Isaiah 55:6-9 –

1. God is _____, but we can _____ Him

Seek the LORD while He may be found; call on Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way and the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn to the LORD, and He will have mercy on him, and to our God, for He will freely pardon. Isaiah 55:6-7

2. God is _____, His ways

are _____ understanding

Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and His paths beyond tracing out! “Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been His counselor?” “Who has ever given to God, that God should repay him?” For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever! Amen. Romans 11:33-36

3. God is _____, but He has revealed _____

...the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints. To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Colossians 1:26-27

Application Questions . . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this passage?
2. In light of Is. 55:6-7, would you say you have been seeking the Lord or hiding from Him this week? Why?
3. How does your search for answers to life's problems affect your relationship with God? How easy is it for you to trust Him when the answers are unattainable? What can be done to develop such trust?
4. Is the seeking in Isaiah 55 related to the seeking Jesus mentions in Matt. 6:33? Is it meant to be a life-long seeking? If so, how much “finding” should we expect to experience in this life on earth? Will we ever be able to get by with less and less seeking?
5. How much do “eternal concerns” affect your daily decisions? Which areas of your life are the least influenced by your faith in God? Which are most?
