Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this passage?
2. What would you say are the five most important choices you've made in life?
3. In Psalm 32, how does the Lord's counsel (vss. 8-9) relate to David's struggle (vss. 3-4)? How is he like a mule? In practical terms, how can you avoid what David is describing in vs. 9?
4. From your own experience, why would you say you need the kind of Holy Spirit described by Jesus in John 14:16-17 and 16:13?
5. Why can circumstances alone be a dangerous way to try and discern God's will?
6. In what current situation do you need to know God's will? How can the three sources to the left (good, better, best) help you find it?
