Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this passage?
2. From what you see in the Lord’s words to Joshua in 1:8, what would be a good personal prayer to offer to God as you study this book?
3. If you can, describe a time in the past when you knew a certain stage in your life was over, and you needed to press fully ahead into the next stage.
4. As you consider your own life, how much ownership can you claim to what Paul says in Phil. 3:12-14? Is this a picture of your life as well?
5. What do you need most in life: a calling or cause to give yourself to, or the courage to give yourself to a calling or cause that you’ve already received?
6. Practically speaking, how does a person find strength and courage in God?
7. From what you see in Joshua 1, discuss together how you would complete this sentence:
What God really wants from me is...
