Series: Radical Faith for Ridiculous Times

– Joshua 24 –

I. A CHRONICLE OF GOD'S GOODNESS

II. A CHALLENGE TO BE GENUINE

Four Ingredients of a True Decision for God:

WE MUST BE WILLING TO . . .

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

Application Questions . . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this passage?
2. Discuss why you agree or disagree with this statement: All true happiness and fulfillment in my life is a result of the choices I make.
3. Joshua reminded Israel of God's faithfulness. In what ways has God been faithful to you?
4. Can you honestly say from your experience, "Not one of the Lord's promises to me has failed?" (Josh. 21:45) If not, why? Can you discern the Lord's goodness in spite of apparent failure?
5. Which of the four kinds of soil (Mark 4) would best describe your response to the Gospel when you first heard it? Which best describes the condition of your heart right now?
6. How has your relationship with Jesus affected your lifestyle? Relationships? Priorities? Politics?
7. In light of how you're doing spiritually in your life right now, which "ingredient" to the left do you think is the most important at this time and why?
