Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this passage?
2. What do you think is most important about Rahab's understanding of God, as revealed in this chapter?
3. Given her disreputable occupation and her obvious lie, what in this story builds Rahab's reputation as a woman of faith (see also Heb. 11:31 and James 2:25).
4. What is your reaction to Rahab joining the Israelites (Josh. 6:22-25) and becoming an ancestor of Jesus Christ?
5. If you only had Eph. 2:8-10 to refer to, how would you use those verses to help show someone how to become a Christian?
6. How does James 2:24 relate to Eph. 2:8-9?
7. Are we saved by faith, by good deeds, or by a combination of both?
8. In what way should the lifestyle of a Christian validate their faith?
9. Where is the greatest challenge for you in the process of: Intercede, invest, invite, and include?
