Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this message?
2. How would you describe Jonah's understanding, or lack of understanding of God?
3. What do you see as Jonah's biggest problem?
4. Is the question God asks in verse 4 a good one to ask whenever we feel anger? Are there times when the right answer to this question could be yes?
5. Jonah didn't care for the people of Nineveh. Who do you struggle with being willing to reach out to? What (or who) is your "Nineveh"?
6. Imagine yourself being present in the temple as the 12-year-old Jesus hears this book read and discussed by the rabbis. Luke 2:46 says that He was listening to these teachers and asking them questions. What passages from the book do you think would impress the boy Jesus, and what questions or comments do you suppose He might have spoken?
7. How has God challenged you in your study of Jonah?
