NO ONE IS _____

Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this message?
2. How did Paul now view his Jewish traditions? What church traditions have helped you in your faith? Which may have hindered your faith?
3. Look closely at verses 11-12. When Christians share the gospel message with non-Christians today, how can they be certain it is the gospel from Jesus Christ, and not merely a gospel that comes from man?
4. If you had to argue for the reality of the Gospel by giving one example of how you have changed as a result of your faith, what would you share?
5. How do you include your personal experience of Christ changing your life in your witness to others?
6. If God had written this chapter only for you, which words or phrases do you think He would have underlined?
