1. What especially spoke to you?
2. How does this passage call into question the behavior of growing numbers of people who claim to be religious, believe in God and even Christ, and yet drop out of organized church life or at least fade into its periphery?
3. As brothers and sisters in Christ, what responsibilities do we have for each other?
4. How do verses 1-2 illustrate ways of helping someone “keep in step with the Spirit” (5:25)?
5. How can we carry each other’s burdens? What might that look like?
6. When do you notice pride creeping into your life? When are you tempted to compare yourself with others?
7. What is the key lesson you learned from this passage?
