

Truth Be Told

Series: The Original Top Ten
 – Exodus 20:16 –

The Ninth Commandment has as its foundation

the _____,

and He expects us to be committed to _____ as well.

The Text in Context

 The Ninth Commandment is primarily a prohibition* against _____.

 The Ninth Commandment also forbids _____*

Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this message?
2. Which do you believe is our native language – lying or telling the truth? Why do you think this?
3. What is the most common excuse we use for lying to or about others?
4. What is the relationship between telling the truth and order in society? What will happen in society when lying becomes the accepted norm?
5. What is communicated to the world about Christ, when Christians lie?
6. Review your relationships this week – take stock of your truthfulness. Where are your relationships being diminished because you are being less than honest or are hiding something important?
7. Read Eph. 4:14-32. How would you describe the kind of truth-telling that Paul calls for Christians to practice? What are some specific ways you could do this?

