Application Questions. . .

1. What especially spoke to you in this message?
2. If God had written this psalm only for you, which words or phrases do you think He might of underlined, and why?
3. With your own children are you more or less strict than your parents were with you? Why?
4. It takes a lot of work to make a straight arrow. Being as practical as possible, share how you are approaching this “shaping process” with your children.
5. Imagine being on a talk show discussing the issue of spanking. How does your three-generation panel each react to Prov. 13:24?
6. Which practical pointer (for positive parenting) represents the biggest opportunity for growth? What steps can you begin taking immediately?
7. If you are a parent, what specific gifts do you see in your children? How can you encourage them to pursue those gifts in a God-honoring, mission-oriented way?
