Application Questions. . .

1. What part of the text or message had the greatest impact on you? Where were you most encouraged, intrigued, or challenged?
2. How would you answer someone who said, "I want to enjoy the things of the world for a little while longer; then I'll fully trust Christ."
3. Discuss the connections you see between Heb. 11:27 & Heb. 10:35-36. How can we keep the greater riches of Christ in view when the world's treasures parade by us daily?
4. How can Moses' life encourage you to persevere through difficult times? Be specific.
5. Could Moses have had more influence by remaining in Pharaoh's court? When is it time to separate from worldly friends/activities?
6. How can the story of our struggles, also be the story of God's grace?
7. How can you root yourself more deeply in the love of God (Jude vss. 20-21) in order to overcome the attraction of this temporal world?
