Application Questions. . .

1. What part of the text or message had the greatest impact on you? Where were you most encouraged, intrigued, or challenged?
2. What do the two different foundations in this passage represent?
3. What is required to build your house on the rock (see Luke 6:48) and why is it so difficult for us? Practically, what might “digging deep” look like?
4. What are the similarities and differences between the wise and foolish builder? What can we learn from them?
5. Nobody sets out to build their life on sand, but so many still do. How do so many well-intentioned people end up in a place where their lives collapse in the storm?
6. Why is it that many seem to be content with being hearers of the Word but not doers (Ezek. 33:31)? How do churches today make this an acceptable practice?
7. What if obedience was not simply our compulsory reaction toward God, but the voluntary posture we would assume in order that we might actually experience the blessing for which we were created?
