Application Questions. . .

1. What part of the text or message had the greatest impact on you? Where were you most encouraged, intrigued, or challenged?
2. How does Exodus 5 challenge the idea that our obedience obligates God to bless us and grant us an easy life? How does it challenge the idea that the Christian life is free from doubt?
3. Why do you think God doesn't just make our lives easier? How can we lean on Him when we feel like giving up?
4. Look at Ex. 7:7. Do the ages of Moses and Aaron shock you? What notions might we have about serving God at certain ages? Do you think it's easier to serve God at a certain age than at another?
5. Compare Pharaoh's words in vs. 28 with what you see about him in vss. 34-35. As a practical guide for your own life, what insight or principle could you draw from these verses?
6. Look at Ex. 12:7-13. Israel was to be in a state of readiness. Jesus tells us to be ready at all times for His return (Matt. 24:36-44). How can we prepare ourselves?
