

The Day that the Lord has Made
Luke 19:41-44

Introduction: The Triumphal Entry of the King

A. Today, verses 41 & 42

The Prediction of Today

The Predicament of Today

B. Tomorrow, verses 43 & 44

The Promise of Destruction

The Pretext for Destruction

Reflection Questions:

1. What stood out to you, challenged you, or encouraged you from the teaching?
2. Describe this scene in your own words. If you were present for the Triumphal Entry of Jesus, what might you feel as he rode into town?
3. The Jewish nation expected Jesus to serve as a political king. How do our expectations of Jesus differ from who he actually is in our lives?
4. Can you think of a time when you expected God to work in your life a certain way, and he worked differently?
5. Sometimes we are so focused on what is happening around us on earth that we are blinded to the bigger story of God. Has this ever happened in your life? What are some of the things that distract you from the bigger picture?
6. If you had lived in Jerusalem during this time, how do you think you would respond to Jesus' entry? Would you be a follower of Jesus or a skeptic like the some of the Pharisees in the crowd?
7. How would you answer if a friend asked you who Jesus was?

